PART II – THE HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS AUTHORITY

- 3. (1) There is hereby established an authority, to be known as the Hotels and Restaurants Authority, which shall consist of the following members-
- a) a Chairman appointed by the Minister;
 - b) not less than seven and not more than nine persons appointed by the Minister, of whom-
 - i) at least one shall be appointed by reason of his knowledge of the hotel industry and international tourism;
 - ii) at least one shall be appointed to represent the interests of hotel keepers;
 - iii) at least one shall be appointed to represent the interest of restaurant keepers;
 - iv) at least one shall be appointed to represent the interest of hotel and restaurants employees; and
 - c) the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry, or a person deputed by him in writing to take his place as a member of the Authority.
- (2) Before the Minister makes an appointment under this section, he shall require the person to be appointed to declare whether he has any, and if so what, financial interest in any hotel or restaurant.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Authority to keep under review the standards of hotels and restaurants and to advise the Minister on the improvement and development of hotels and restaurants and on any other matters which may be referred to it by the Minister.
- (4) The Authority shall have power-
- a) to issue licences in accordance with section 5;
 - b) to investigate and determine complaints in accordance with section 7;
 - c) to vary, suspend and cancel licences in accordance with section 8
- (5) In the exercise of its functions under this Act, the Authority, shall be guided by the consideration of promoting the well-being and development of the hotels and restaurant industries as a whole, as well as the interests of persons using hotels and restaurants.
- (6) The First Schedule shall have effect with respect to the Authority.

PART III-LICENSING

4. (1) After the appointed day-

- a) no premises shall be used or kept as a hotel unless there is in force a valid hotel licence in respect of such hotel;
- b) no person shall exercise overall control over the day-to-day operation of a hotel, whether he is the owner or the manager of such hotel, unless he is the holder of a hotel manager's licence;
- c) no premises shall be used or kept as a restaurant unless there in force a valid restaurant licence in respect of such premises.
- d) No person shall exercise overall control over the day-to-day operation of a restaurant, whether he is the owner or the manager of the restaurant, unless he is the holder of a restaurant manager's licence.

(2) In this section, "the appointed day" means such date as the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint for the purposes of this section, and different dates may be so appointed in respect of different licences or in respect of different areas or of different classes of premises.

(3) In the event of any contravention-

- a) of paragraph(a) or (c) of subsection(1), the owner, and manager(if any) of the premises concerned;
- b) of paragraph(b) of subsection(1), the person concerned, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to both.

5. (1) Any person desirous of obtaining a licence, or of obtaining any variation of a licence held by him, shall make application to the Authority in such form, accompanied by such information, as may be prescribed.
- (2) An application for the grant of a licence which is in continuation of an existing licence shall be made at least two months before the expiry date of the existing licence.
- (3) On receipt of an application under this section, the Authority may make such investigations or require the submission of such declaration or further information, as it may deem necessary in order to enable it to consider the application.

- (4) The Authority shall not consider an application under this section for the grant of a hotel licence or a restaurant licence unless the application is accompanied by a certificate, signed by a medical officer of health (as defined in the Public Health Act) and dated not more than three months before the receipt by the Authority of the application, to the effect that:-
- a) where food will be supplied proper provision has been made of the sanitation of the premises in respect of which the application is made, for the storage, preparation, cooking and serving of food and drink on the premises, and for the health and comfort of persons using the premises; and
 - b) that the premises conform in all respects with the provision of any written law relating to sanitation and public health apply thereto.
- (5) After considering an application under this section and all matters appearing relevant thereto the Authority may, subject to the succeeding provisions of this section, grant to the applicant the licence or variation applied for or may refuse such grant, and may attach to any licence so granted such conditions as the authority may deem expedient.
- (6) The Authority shall not grant a hotel licence or a restaurant licence unless it is satisfied that-
- a) the premises in respect of which the application is made are structurally suitable for the use proposed;
 - b) either-
 - i) where no tariff order has been made which is applicable to the hotel or restaurant concerned, the charges are reasonable having regard to the standards of accommodation, food and service, and to such other matters as the Authority considers relevant; or
 - ii) where such a tariff order has been made, the charges are not in excess of those authorized by such order.

- (7) The Authority shall grant a hotel manager's licence unless it is satisfied that the applicant is not a fit and proper person to manage a hotel.
 - (8) Any person who makes or causes to be made, either orally or in writing, any declaration or representation which he knows or has reason to believe to be false for the purpose of obtaining a licence or the variation of a licence shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment of a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or to both.
- 6.
- (1) Every licence shall expire on the 31st December of the year in respect of which it is issued.
 - (2) A hotel licence or restaurant licence shall state the precise name, location and extent of the premises to which it relates, shall be endorsed with every condition imposed by the Authority, and shall be displayed prominently on such premises in a part thereof to which the public have access, and where a licence is not so displayed the holder thereof shall be guilty of an offence.
 - (3) Where hotels have been classified by regulations under section 29, a hotel manager's licence shall state the class of hotel, which the licensee is licensed to manage.
 - (4) A licence shall not be capable of being transferred from the licensee to any other person, and any person who attempts or purports to transfer a licence shall be guilty of an offence.
 - (5) On the cancellation of a licence, the Authority shall forthwith notify the licensee thereof and the licensee shall, within fourteen days of the receipt by him of the notification, surrender his licence to the Authority, and if without reasonable cause he fails to do so he shall be guilty of an offence.
 - (6) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (2),(4) or (5) shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings or to imprisonment of a term not exceeding two months or to both.
 - (7) (1) Any person who is dissatisfied with the manner in which a hotel or a restaurant is conducted may make a written complaint in that behalf to the Authority;

Provided that no such complaint shall be accepted by the Authority unless it is made within twenty-eight days after the matter complained of first came to the notice of the complainant.

- (2) Upon receipt of a complaint under this section, the Authority-
 - (a) if it is satisfied that the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or merely trivial, shall reject the complaint summarily; or
 - (b) otherwise shall investigate and determine the same.
- (3) In any investigation under this section-
 - a) the Authority shall inform the licensee concerned of the nature of the complaint and afford him the opportunity of being heard in person:
 - b) the Authority may act on general evidence or information relating to the manner in which the business of the licensee is conducted, and shall not be confined to receiving and considering only evidence admissible in a court of law;
 - c) the chairman or other persons presiding shall have power to administer oaths;
 - d) the chairman may, by notice under his hand, summon any person to attend and give evidence and to produce any relevant document.
- (4) Any person who, after payment or tender to him of his reasonable expense, without reasonable excuse fails, when summoned by the Authority, to attend and give evidence or to attend and produce any document which is required to produce shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.
- (5) Where, as a result of a complaint made against a licensee the Authority finds after investigation that the complaint is frivolous or vexatious, the Authority may order the person making the complainant to pay to the Authority or the licensee such sum as the Authority considers equitable in relation to expense incurred and attributable to the complaint, and any sum so ordered shall be recoverable as a civil debt.

8. (1) Where it appears to the Authority that-
- a) the holder of a hotel manager's licence has ceased to be a fit and proper person to manage a hotel; or
 - b) a hotel or restaurant is being conducted in an unclean or unsanitary manner; or
 - c) a hotel or restaurant is not being conducted in an efficient manner', or
 - d) a hotel or restaurant is being so conducted as to constitute a nuisance or annoyance to persons in the neighbourhood or in an improper manner; or
 - e) the food served in a hotel or restaurant is not properly prepared, cooked or served; or
 - f) any condition specified in subsection(6), or attached to a licence under subsection(5) of section 5 is not being, or has ceased to be complied with; or
 - g) any notice given under section 23 is not being complied with, the Authority, after giving the licensee the opportunity of being heard, may give notice in writing to the licensee concerned specifying the matters which it considers require to be remedied, and requiring him to remedy them to its satisfaction before a specified date.

- (2) If a licensee fails to comply with the requirements of a notice given to him under subsection (1), the Authority may without prejudice to any liability on the part of the licensee to be prosecuted for an offence under this Act, call upon the licensee to show cause why his licence should not be suspended, varied or cancelled, and thereafter, if the licensee fails to show good cause, the Authority may suspend, vary or cancel the licence.

- (3) Where an employee of a licensee has his employment prematurely terminated by reason of a requirement made under this section, no action shall lie in any court against the Authority in respect of the termination.
- 9. (1) Any person who is aggrieved by-
- a) the refusal of the Authority to grant or vary a licence; or
 - b) the attaching of any condition to a licence; or
 - c) the variation, suspension or cancellation of a licence,
- may, within fourteen days of the notification of the act complained of being received by him, appeal in writing to the Tribunal, whose decision shall be final.
- (2) Where the Authority has suspended, varied or cancelled a licence, the suspension, variation or cancellation shall not have effect until the end of the time within which an appeal may be made to the Tribunal or, if an appeal has been made, until the appeal has been heard and determined.
- (3) Where a person's application for a licence or for the variation of a licence is refused, or where a person's license is suspended, varied or cancelled, or a person is aggrieved by the decision of the Authority, that person may in writing require the Authority to give the reasons for its decisions, and the Authority shall give its reasons in writing accordingly.
- 10. (1) There is hereby established an appeal tribunal, to be known as the Hotels and Restaurants Appeal Tribunal, which shall consider and determine appeals under section 9.
- (2) The Tribunal shall consist of-
- a) a chairman appointed by the Minister; and
 - b) not less than two and not more than four other members appointed by the Minister.
- (3) A person shall not be qualified to be appointed a member of the Tribunal if he is a member of the Authority.
- (4) There shall be an assessor to the Tribunal, who shall be an advocate of not less than five years' standing, appointed by the Tribunal with the approval of the Minister; and the assessor, when the Tribunal so requires, shall attend the proceedings of the Tribunal and advise it on question of law.

- (5) For the purposes of the hearing and determination of appeals by the Tribunal -
 - a) the chairman or other person presiding may administer oaths;
 - b) the chairman may, by notice under his hand, summon any person to attend and give evidence and to produce any relevant document.
- (6) The costs of an appeal shall be in the discretion of the Tribunal, which may make such order as to costs as appear to it just; and any such costs shall be recoverable as a civil debt.
- (7) Any person who, after payment or tender to him of his reasonable expenses, without reasonable excuse fails, when summoned by the Tribunal, to attend and give evidence or to attend and produce any documents which he is required to produce shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.
- (8) The Second Schedule shall have effect with respect to the Tribunal.

PART IV-DUTIES, LIABILITIES AND PRIVILEGES OF HOTEL KEEPERS

- 11. (1) Every holder of a hotel licence shall keep a register in his hotel and shall enter or cause to be entered in the register the name and address of every guest who stays at the hotel and such other particulars as may be prescribed.
- (2) Every holder of a hotel licence shall enter or cause to be entered regularly in a book kept for the purpose all such particulars (other than particulars prescribed in respect of the register required by subsection (1) to be kept) as may be prescribed.

- (3) Any person who fails to comply with this section, or who makes this section to be kept any entry which he knows or has reason to believe to be false, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or, both.
- 12. (1) The liability of an inn keeper at common law shall be subject to the modifications hereinafter contained in this section.
- (2) Without prejudice to any other liability incurred by him with respect thereto, the holder of a hotel licence shall not be liable to make good to a guest any loss of or damage to property brought to the hotel except where-
- a) at the time the loss or damage occurred, sleeping accommodation at the hotel had been engaged for the guest; and
- b) the loss or damage occurred between the midnight immediately preceding and the midnight immediately following a period during which the guest was entitled to use the accommodation so engaged.
- (3) Without prejudice to any other liability or right of his with respect thereto, the holder of a hotel licence shall not be liable to make good to a guest any loss of or damage to. Nor shall he have any lien upon, any vehicle, or any property left in a vehicle, or any live animal or its harness or their equipment.
- (4) where the holder of a hotel licence is liable in the circumstances described in paragraphs(a) and (b) of subsection(2) to make good any loss of or damage to property brought to the hotel, then, subject to section 13, his liability to any one guest shall not exceed five hundred shillings in respect of any one article or one thousand shillings in the aggregate, except where-
- (a) the property was stolen, lost or damaged through the default, neglect or willful act of the licensee or a person in his employ; or
- (b) the property was deposited by or on behalf of the guest expressly for safe custody with the licensee or a person in his employ authorized, or appearing to be authorized, for the purpose and, if so required by the licensee or the person in his employ, in a container fastened or sealed by the depositor; or

(c) at the time after the guest has arrived at the hotel, after the property in question was offered for deposit as aforesaid and the licensee or a person in his employ refused to receive it, or the guest or some other guest acting on his behalf wished so to offer the property in question but, through the default of the licensee or a person in his employ, was unable to do so.

(5) Every holder of a hotel licence shall cause a notice in the form in the Third Schedule, printed in plain type in Kiswahili, English, French, German, Italian and any other language which may be prescribed, to be displayed prominently at a place where it can conveniently be read by the guests at or near the hotel reception office or desk or, where there is no reception office or desk, at or near the main entrance of the hotel; and he shall be entitled to the benefit of this section in respect of property brought to his hotel only while such notice is so displayed.

13. (1). The holder of a hotel licence shall, in addition to the ordinary lien of an innkeeper at common law, have the right absolutely to sell by public auction any property deposited or left with him or in his hotel or in any premises appurtenant or belonging to the hotel, where the person depositing or leaving the property is or becomes indebted to him for accommodation, food or drink at the hotel:

Provided that-

- (i) no such sale shall be made until after the property has been for a period of six weeks in his charge or custody or in or upon his premises, without the debt having been paid or satisfied;
- (ii) the debt for the payment of which a sale is made under this section shall not be any other or greater debt than the debt for which the property could have been retained by the holder of a hotel licence have been retained by the holder of a hotel licence under his lien at common law as a innkeeper; and

- (iii) at least one month before the sale is effected, the holder of a hotel licence shall cause to be inserted in a national newspaper an advertisement giving notice of the intended sale and a short description of the property intended to be sold, together with the name (if known) of the owner or persons who deposited or left it, and if the address of such owner or person is known to him he shall send a copy of the notice to such owner or person.
- (2) The holder of a hotel licence shall out of the proceeds of the sale of any property sold pursuant to subsection (1), after retaining the amount of his debt and the costs and expense of the sale, pay on demand to the person who deposited or left the property any surplus money remaining thereafter.

PART V- REGULATION OF PRICES.

- 14. (1) The Minister may at any time carry out a review of the charges made by hotels or restaurants in any area, and as a result of such a review he may, after giving not less than one month's notice in the Gazette of his intention to do so by order, fix minimum or maximum charges which may be made by any hotel or restaurant, in that area.
- (2) An order under subsection (1) may-
- (a) either specify the charges themselves or prescribe the method by which they are to be calculated;
 - (b) be made applicable to specified hotels or restaurants or to hotels or restaurants of a specified class.
- (3) Where any charge is made in a hotel or restaurant which exceeds the maximum charge or which is below the minimum charge fixed by a tariff order relevant to that hotel or restaurant, the holder of the restaurant licence or, as the case may be, the manager of the hotel shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month or to both, or in the case of a second or subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding five thousand shilling or to imprisonment of a term not exceeding six months or both.

- (3) A levy order may contain provisions as to the evidence by which a person’s liability to the levy, or his discharge of that liability, may be established, and as to the time at which any amount payable by any person by way of the levy shall become due.
- (4) All moneys, received in respect of the levy shall be paid into the Fund and, if not paid on or before the date prescribed by the levy order, the money and any sum payable under subsection (5) shall be a civil debt recoverable summarily by the Trustees.
- (5) If any person fails to pay any amount payable by him by way of the levy on or before the date prescribed by the order, such person shall be liable to a penalty of five thousand shillings and thereafter to an additional penalty of three per centum of the amount of the levy due; for each month or part thereof during which the amount due remains unpaid.
- (6) Any person who fails to comply with any provision of a levy order shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to a fine not exceeding Twenty thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both.

17. (1) There is hereby established a training and tourism development levy fund which shall be vested in the Trustees and into which shall be paid-
- a) all proceeds of the levy;
 - b) any moneys derived from the sale of surplus assets of the Trustees;
 - c) all money, from any other source, provided for or donated or lent to the Trustees.
- (2) Any moneys in the Fund not immediately required for the purposes of the Trustees may be placed on deposit at a bank or invested by the Trustees in any securities in which trustees may, for the time being, by law invest or in any other securities approved for the purpose by the Treasury.
18. (1) There is hereby established a body of trustees, to be known as the Catering and Tourism Development Levy Trustees, which shall consist of six persons appointed by the Minister who shall nominate one of such persons as the chairman of the Trustees.
- (2) The Catering and Tourism Development Levy Trustees shall, by that name, be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal, and may, in its corporate name sue and be sued, and, for the purposes of its functions, may purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, manage and dispose of property, movable or immovable, and may enter into such contracts as the Trustees may deem necessary or expedient.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a trustee shall hold office for such period, not exceeding five years, as the Minister may specify in his appointment and at the expiration of such period shall be eligible for reappointment.
- (4) The office of a trustee shall become vacant –
- a) if he resigns his office by notice in writing addressed to the minister;
 - b) if he dies;

- c) if he is adjudicated bankrupt;
- d) if he is made the subject of a reception order under Part VI of the Mental Treatment Act;
- e) if he is sentenced to a term of imprisonment by any court; or
- f) if the Minister is satisfied that the trustee is physically incapable of fulfilling, or by reason of misconduct is unsuitable to exercise, the functions of his office and terminates the appointment of the trustee.

- 19. (1) The functions of the Trustees shall be-
- a) To control and administer the Fund;
 - b) To establish, equip and control such establishments for the training of persons for employment in hotels and restaurants as the Minister may approve;
 - c) Establish and develop national standards for testing the skills required by the tourism industry;
 - d) Make such payments out of the Fund as may be necessary to enable the Kenya Tourist Board promote Kenya as a tourist destination both locally and internationally.
- (2) The Trustees may employ such officers and staff as may be necessary to enable the functions of the Trustees and the purposes of this Part to be carried out, and shall pay out of the Fund to such officers and staff such salaries and allowances as the Minister may approve.
- (3) For the purposes of their functions the Trustees may borrow such moneys, from such sources and in such amounts as may be approved by the Treasury.
- 20. (1) The Trustees may meet together for the despatch of their business and otherwise regulate their meetings as they may think fit.
- (2) The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Trustees shall be four.
- (3) If the chairman of the Trustees is absent from any meeting the trustees present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to preside thereat, and the chairman or person so presiding shall have a casting in addition to his deliberative vote.

- (4) Any document, other than one required by law to be under seal, may be signified under the hand of one of the Trustees.

20.A (1) The Trustees may by, written notice addressed to any person-

- a) appoint such person to be the agent of a licensee for the purposes of the collection and recovery of the levy due from such licensee; and
 - b) specify the amount of levy to be collected and recovered by such agent.
- (2) An agent shall pay the levy specified in his appointment notice out of any moneys which may, at any time during the twelve months following the date of the notice, be held by him for, or due from him to the licensee.
 - (3) Where a person appointed under subsection(2) claims to be, or to have become unable to comply with subsection(2) by reason of the lack of moneys held by or due from him, he shall, as soon as may be practicable, notify the trustees accordingly in writing setting out fully the reasons for his inability so to comply and the Trustees may -
 - a) accept the notification and cancel or amend the appointment notice accordingly; or
 - b) if they are not satisfied with the reasons, reject the notification in writing.
 - (4) Unless and until a notification is given by an agent under subsection (3)-
 - a) sufficient money for the payment of the levy specified in his appointment notice shall be presumed to be held by him for, or due from him to, the licensee; and
 - b) in any proceedings for the collection or recovery of that levy, he shall be estopped from asserting the lack of those moneys.
 - (5) For the purposes of this section, the Trustees may, by notice in writing, at any time require any person to furnish them within a reasonable time, not being less than thirty days from the date of service of the notice, with a return showing any moneys which may be held by that person for, or due from him to, a licensee from whom a levy is due.

- (6) A person who has paid the levy under this section shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have acted with the authority of the licensee, and shall be indemnified in respect of that payment against all proceedings, civil or criminal, and all process, judicial or extra judicial, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any written law, contract or agreement.
- (7) Any person who, without lawful cause or excuse –
- a) fails to comply within thirty days, with a notice given by the Trustees under this section; or
 - b) discharges any liability to a licensee in disregard of such notice;

Shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both, and shall, in addition, be liable to apply to the Trustees the amount of any liability discharged.

- 20B. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act; in any case where the Trustees are of the opinion that they should refrain from recovering levy from any licensee by reason of impossibility, or undue difficulty or expense of the recovery of the levy, the Trustees may refrain from recovering the levy in question and thereupon liability to the levy shall be deemed to be extinguished or abandoned.
- (2) Where the Trustees have decided to refrain from recovery of levy under subsection(1), they shall report that decision in writing to the Minister within three months next following the decision.
- (3) Where a case has been referred to the Minister, and where he considers it appropriate, he may, in writing direct the Trustees to-
- (a) Take such action under this section as the Minister may deem fit; or
 - (b) Obtain the direction of the courts upon the case.
- 21. (1) The Trustees shall cause to be kept all proper books of account and other books, and records in relation to the Fund and to all their undertakings, activities and property, and shall, within a period of four months after the end of the financial year, cause to be prepared-

- (a) a balance sheet showing in detail the assets and liabilities of the Fund as at the end of that financial year;
 - (b) such other statements of account as may be necessary to indicate the financial status of the Trustees as at the end of the year.
 - (2) The accounts of the Trustees shall be examined, audited and reported upon annually by the Auditor-General (Corporations).
- 22. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Training Act no training committee shall be set up in relation to training in, and no training levy order shall be made in respect of, hotels and restaurants under that Act.

PART VII-SUPPLEMENTARY

- 23.(1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, direct that the manager of any hotel shall not receive any guest therein except with the written authority of the Minister or such person, officer or bureau, as the Minister may designate for the purpose.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) may be given with regard to a particular hotel, or to a particular class of hotel, or to hotels within a specified area.
- 24. Where the holder of a hotel licence or restaurant licence has such licence cancelled, or has his application for a renewal of such licence (to take effect upon the expiration of such licence) refused, he shall be entitled, on payment of a proportionate part of the prescribed fee, to be granted a licence of the kind cancelled or refused for such period, not exceeding six months, as the Authority considers adequate to enable the business to be wound up or disposed of.
- 25. (1) any person authorized in writing by the Authority for the purpose, may, at all reasonable times-
